Notice of Trustee Elections

November 2023

Dear Member,

Thank you for your interest in serving on the Board of Trustees for Paulding Putnam Electric Cooperative, Inc. This letter will briefly outline some of the roles and responsibilities of being a trustee. If you have any questions about becoming a trustee, please do not hesitate to contact our office or to seek the advice of a current trustee.

Trustees for PPEC face many challenges. The Cooperative is a $120 million corporation with over $42 million in annual revenue. The electric utility business is complicated, and the cooperative network of utilities can be confusing. Trustees must understand that it is necessary to be committed to the organization and to fellow trustees. The Cooperative requires a professional Board of Trustees committed to preparing the cooperative to meet member needs far into the future. Trustees do not spend time or get involved with the day-to-day operations of the cooperative; they are instead focused on achieving long-term, strategic goals.

The Cooperative understands trustees must commit a lot of time to the position. Board materials are provided in electronic format using an iPad. Trustees need to have basic computer knowledge and ability. Typical monthly board material packets may contain over 100 pages of reports and financial data. In addition to monthly board packets, trustees can expect to receive regular email communication from the President/CEO.

Training and ongoing education are important to being a good PPEC Trustee. To be eligible for continued re-election after six years, trustees must complete two levels of board certification from NRECA, our National Rural Electric Cooperative Association. These certificates are Certified Cooperative Director (CCD) and the Board Leadership Certification (BLC). Continuing education is also highly suggested and leads to Director Gold certification. Most of the training is offered in Columbus, OH, and/or Indianapolis, IN, as day trips. The CCD and BLC are required certifications and must be obtained by all trustees.

The Board of Trustees meets monthly on the third Thursday. There are other meetings scheduled throughout the year, as well as the previously mentioned education courses. Serving on the Board of Trustees requires a serious commitment. Trustees are not employees of the cooperative, nor do they receive a salary or benefits. Trustees are compensated for their time in meetings and education courses by receiving a per diem of $450 (additional amounts may be paid depending on certifications received). This includes preparation time outside of normal meetings and training sessions. Trustees are required to be prepared for all meetings and to attend at least 75% of all regularly scheduled meetings.

Board members also receive a monthly stipend of $150 to cover incidental costs of home equipment, paper, Internet, etc.

I want to thank you again for your interest in serving on the Board of Trustees. If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me by calling our office at 800-686-2357.

Sincerely,

Randy Price
President and CEO

PAULDING PUTNAM ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE, INC.

TRUSTEE DUTIES AND STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

I. OBJECTIVE:

To explain the fiduciary duties of trustees and to clarify the standards of conduct for which they will be held accountable when serving on the board.

II. PREAMBLE:

All of the powers of the cooperative are conferred upon and may be exercised by the Board of Trustees, except as reserved to or conferred upon the members by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or the Code of Regulations. It is the purpose of this policy to identify or establish standards whereby such power may be exercised in the best interests of the system.

III. POLICY CONTENT:

A. Legal duties

1. Trustees are subject to legal standards of fiduciary responsibility. These include the duties of care and loyalty.

Under the duty of care, trustees are required to:

- a. Exercise that degree of care with which an ordinarily prudent person would exercise under similar circumstances.
- b. Have or acquire the minimum knowledge and skills necessary to direct the affairs of the cooperative.
- c. Make every effort to attend all meetings of the board and to study materials sent prior to each board meeting.
- d. Study and adhere to all obligations imposed by the Articles of Incorporation, the code of regulations, contractual agreements and board policies.

Under the duty of loyalty, trustees are required to:

- a. Act only in the best long-term interest of the cooperative and its members.
- b. Place the interests of the cooperative over any personal interests.
- c. Not have any financial interest in a directly competing business.
- d. Avoid the appearance of any conflict of interest.
- e. Avoid any future conflict of interest by refusing to receive any remuneration from any entity proposing to purchase all or substantially all of the assets of the cooperative.
- f. Represent and support the interests of the cooperative to elected and public officials.
- g. Publicly support decisions of the board except in extraordinary circumstances where the director believes that there is a clear and present threat to the survival of the cooperative.

2. Pursuant to their fiduciary duties of loyalty and care, trustees are required to protect and hold confidential all non-public information obtained due to their trusteeship position absent the express permission of the Board of Trustees to disclose such information. Accordingly,
 - a. No trustee shall use confidential information for his or her own personal benefit or to the benefit of persons or entities; and
 - b. No trustee shall disclose confidential information, either during or after his or her service as a trustee of the cooperative, except with authorization of the Board of Trustees or as may be otherwise required by law.
 3. “Confidential Information” is all non-public information entrusted to or obtained by a trustee by reason of his or her position as a trustee of the cooperative. It includes, but is not limited to, non-public information that might be of use to competitors or harmful to the cooperative or its members/customers if disclosed, such as:
 - a. Non-public information about the cooperative’s financial condition, prospects or plans, its marketing and sales programs and research and development information, as well as information relating to mergers and acquisitions and or divestitures;
 - b. Non-public information concerning possible transactions with other companies or information about the cooperative’s members/customers, suppliers or joint venture partners, which the cooperative is under obligation to maintain as confidential; and
 - c. Non-public information about discussions and deliberations relating to business issues and decisions, between and among employees, officers and trustees.
- B. Conduct with respect to fellow trustees regardless of any personal differences trustees should:
1. Demonstrate mutual respect.
 2. Allow opportunity for every director to be heard on any matter being considered by the board.
 3. Abstain from revealing to persons other than trustees, the President/CEO, or the system's attorney, any differences of positions among directors on matters considered and acted upon by the board. (This standard does not preclude fair and accurate publication of such differences to the system's members in relation to contests for director elections or other matters to be voted upon by the members.)

C. Trustees access to cooperative information

1. Any trustee is entitled to have access to cooperative data or information, at reasonable times during the business hours for a proper purpose that is germane to his or her standing as a member or trustee. This principle is subject to the following:
 - a. All requests for information shall be made to and through the President/CEO. In no case shall such information be sought through other employees, agents, or independent contractors (unless after consultation with and being advised by the system's attorney because an actual or potential criminal activity of the President/CEO is involved).
 - b. In any instance in which a trustee has sought access to information not generally made available or reported to the board, the President/CEO shall report on this at the next meeting of the board.
 - c. Information received by a trustee pursuant to this policy shall not be revealed by him or her to any other persons (the remaining trustees, President/CEO, and system attorney excepted) unless he or she is sincerely convinced that he or she is compelled to do so by legal considerations.
 - d. In no case should a trustee reveal to others information and data he or she receives if the actual or potential effect of such revelation is to damage the system, including its image, or to enable him or herself and/or others to personally profit from.

D. Good faith and fair play

1. Every trustee shall deal in good faith and fair play with every other trustee and the President/CEO in expressing his views, questions, and concerns relating to cooperative policies, rates, and programs. Good faith and fair play require:
 - a. All trustees should reveal all information or interests that they may have and that may bear upon action being considered by the cooperative.
 - b. Those trustees will not so pursue a position, inquiry, or motion as to unduly harass or annoy other trustees, the President/CEO, employees, or independent contractors.
 - c. That trustee communications with employees other than the President/CEO shall be casual and conducted on a courteous basis, but not for the purpose of influencing an employee's position or attitude concerning his cooperative-related activities.

I. RESPONSIBILITY:

1. All candidates, nominees, or appointees to the board shall receive a copy of this policy and attest by their signatures to having received the policy.
2. Paulding Putnam’s legal counsel shall inform all candidates, nominees, or appointees to the board regarding the terms and conditions of this policy and the personal liability implications resulting from policy violations.
3. To insure compliance with all policies and to assess board performance the board shall, on an annual basis, conduct a board evaluation. It shall be the responsibility of the Chairman or Chairwoman and the Executive Committee to conduct the evaluation and to compile and report the results thereof.
4. All trustees shall annually certify that they have received a copy of this policy, that they understand the policy, and that they are not in any way conflicted with this policy or any other cooperative policy.
5. Paulding Putnam Electric Cooperative, Inc.’s legal counsel shall review this policy with the board on an annual basis and discuss any personal liability implications resulting from violations.
6. The Chairman or Chairwoman of the board shall ensure that this policy is followed.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

I. OBJECTIVE:

To spell out those areas where the trustees and employees of Paulding Putnam Electric Cooperative, Inc. should avoid conflicts of interest, or any appearance of conflict of interest.

II. POLICY CONTENT:

1. Trustees and employees are prohibited from receiving gifts, fees, loans, or favors from suppliers, contractors, consultants, or financial houses, which obligates or induces them to compromise their responsibilities to negotiate, obligate, inspect or audit, or award contracts, with the best interests of Paulding Putnam Electric uppermost in mind. This does not prohibit receiving gifts or favors of nominal value or casual entertainment that meet all standards of ethical business conduct, and involves no element of concealment.
2. The complete confidentiality of business information must be respected at all times. Trustees and employees are prohibited from knowingly disclosing such information to those who do not have the need to know, or whose interest may be adverse to Paulding Putnam Electric Cooperative both inside or outside the organization; or in any way using such information for personal gain or advancement; or to the detriment of Paulding Putnam Electric Cooperative; or to individually conduct negotiations or make contacts or inquiries on behalf of Paulding Putnam Electric Cooperative unless officially designated to do so.
3. Trustees and employees are prohibited from acquiring or having a financial interest in any property which Paulding Putnam Electric Cooperative acquires or a direct or indirect financial interest in a supplier, contractor, consultant, or other entity with which Paulding Putnam Electric Cooperative does business. This does not prohibit the ownership of securities in a publicly owned company except in a substantial amount by those in a position to materially influence or affect the business relationship between Paulding Putnam Electric Cooperative and such publicly owned company. Any other interest in or relationship with an outside organization or individual having business dealings with Paulding Putnam Electric Cooperative is prohibited if this interest or relationship might tend to impair the ability of the directors to serve the best interests of Paulding Putnam Electric Cooperative.

4. If members of the immediate family of a trustee or employee have a financial interest as specified above, such interest shall be fully disclosed to the board of trustees which shall decide if such interest should prevent Paulding Putnam Electric Cooperative from entering into a particular transaction, purchase, or employment of services. The term "immediate family" means children, husband, wife, sister, brother, parents, foster, or step-parents, grandparents, mother or father-in-law, sister or brother-in-law, or any relative residing in the Paulding Putnam Electric Cooperative's directors' or employees' households.
5. Every trustee and employee of Paulding Putnam Electric Cooperative is expected to avoid situations, which might be construed as conflicts of interest since it is not feasible in a policy statement such as this to describe all the circumstances and conditions that might be or have the potential of being considered conflicts of interest.

III. RESPONSIBILITY:

1. The board chairman or chairwoman shall ensure the enforcement of this policy.
2. Actions considered inconsistent with these policies are to be reported to the entire board.
3. Each trustee and employee must disclose any situation, which, in his or her opinion, violates, may violate, or could appear to violate the intent of this policy.
4. Each trustee shall be required to annually certify that they are in compliance with this policy.

Once elected as a PPEC Board Member, you'll be required to sign this annual certification. Please review prior to submitting your application. This is for your reference only and doesn't need signed unless you are officially elected.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES ANNUAL CERTIFICATION

I, PPEC TRUSTEE, will above all things be honest and diligent.

I will follow, at all times, cooperative policies, including but not limited to, Trustee Duties and Standards of Conduct (Policy B001) and Conflict of Interest (Policy B002). Copies of these policies have been provided to me.

I will place the interests of the cooperative above my own personal interests. I will represent the cooperative honestly and diligently and refuse to surrender my responsibilities to special interests or partisan political groups. I will not expect any special privileges from the cooperative because I am a trustee.

I will give as careful attention to the affairs of the cooperative as I give to my own business. I will not become financially interested in any business or agency doing business with the cooperative or in any business or agency that has interests adverse to those of the cooperative.

I will disclose to my fellow members of the cooperative Board of Trustee and the President/CEO any fact, situation, business relationship or official position that constitutes a conflict of interest or may appear to constitute a conflict of interest in any question or issue that may come before the board.

I will give the necessary time to directors' meetings. I will not interfere with management, but will limit myself to the formulation of business and management policies.

I will do independent and careful thinking. I will be open-minded and realize that the view of individual directors cannot always prevail. I will recognize that as a board member, I have no legal authority as an individual and those decisions can be made only by a majority vote at a board meeting.

I will not take private action that might compromise the board or management and will not discuss the confidential affairs of the cooperative with unauthorized persons or employees other than the President/CEO, unless delegated by the board of directors to do so.

I will study the business and problems of the rural electric program and I will encourage management to strive for continued and increased efficiency.

I will encourage and respect the free expression of opinion in board meetings by my fellow board members and others who seek a hearing before the board.

I will curb emotion and apply reason and common sense to all problems.

I pledge to do my best for the cooperative in this position of high honor and trust.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.ftc.gov/credit or write to: Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identify theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.ftc.gov/credit for additional information.
- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.ftc.gov/credit for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.

- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need -- usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.ftc.gov/credit.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.ftc.gov/credit.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. Federal enforcers are:
